100.09.04 Procedure

Assigned station duties shall be documented on the Daily Station Duty Check Sheet. Each Daily Station Duty Check Sheet will be inspected by the On-duty Supervisor once a shift.

100.09.05 Exceptions

- Personnel assigned to stations with a high call volume (UHU above 3.0) may not always have time to accomplish any or all assigned station duties. This is understandable and should be documented on the Daily Station Duty Check Sheet.
- Personnel assigned to, or temporarily filling a shift at a station where a separate station duty schedule has been agreed upon are exempt from this policy. When assigned to or temporarily assigned to a station with a separate agreed upon station duty schedule, employees should comply with that schedule and assignment list.
- Personnel assigned to, or temporarily filling a shift at a station that has a commercial cleaning service or other custodial arrangements may be exempt from some of the aforementioned duty assignments.
- 4. Personnel are not expected to clean up after fund raising events such as bingo or card games of chance conducted at volunteer stations.
- 5. Once personnel have completed and documented their assigned duties and tasks, they are not expected to continually maintain that level outside of what is deemed normal use.
